
Title: Ancient Elv Mythica

Author: From the many...

Here in lies several journal entries from the Ancient House of L'yrethin. Not much is known of the origins of the entries. They have been compiled from one book found in the catacombs of Vesper. The area thought to be the location of the Elv city of Shar.

-Scribe of

Asur'herenion

Thine lineage shall beknownest to all. Recited to thine kindred, thine young, to thyself. Eons shall pass still and our Elv kind may thrive with the blessing of Eru.
Fathers shall begot sons and daughters and thine history shall be recorded for all to know.

We are of the House of Nyrull, under the banner of L'yrethin, holders of the Earth Slaughter.
founders of LeafFalls, Protectors of the Spirit of Eru'n, Keepers of the knowledge of Dawn'Time.

Here in follows transcripts of Da'nicious Ta'vion of the First House and One of First Blood.

(strange unknown runes)
...The Mystical portals we have begun to explore yield the power to instantly transport oneself and oneself belongings to distances far traveled in land never seen. We teach ourselves, we still learn how to navigate the streams.

These "doors," will expand our settlements. We must thank the heavens.

..with the emence
knowledge we have learned in such limited time our magi will soon be able to summon the "doors" on command.
Elder Vyshaan discovered this after a trip through the streams. he claims he met a traveler in the blue who told him the words "Vas Rel Por"

...His name is Azaz. He says he is one of many travellers. He tells that with the proper words and pieces one maybe able to go directly to the gods...

...Contempt breathes in the halls of Nyrull. I fear war will fall on Leaffalls and with the strangers magic more will perish than can be imagined.

...Elder Vyshaan has been acting strange. I feel he seeks the power of the throne. something must be done.

...the traveller is not what he appears. A child saw him consuming the "light" of the forest. I must look into this further.

...he promises things only we are tricked. He decieves. we must get rid of him now or we will all be of his lies and ruin.

....the battle rages on we have united the 4 houses to push him through the "blue" It must be done now!

...it is a sad day for I, but a great day for our people. The banner of L'yrethin waves high. My son is gone. Ka'lithmir my heir sacrificed himself.
Pushing the traveller through the gate before the earth was brought down to conceal the gate that Azaz first appeared.
I know hold the staff that pruned the first stone. The staff of Earth Slaughter it shall be called, Shall it be kept in a place of honor...

I have found nothing in my study that heads any information on to the resting place of the staff.

- Scribe of
Asur'Herenion